CLERK OF COURT

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE TERRITORY OF GUAM

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

YUE XING LIN,

Defendant.

MAGISTRATE CASE NO. 06-00014

PLEA AGREEMENT

Pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(B), the United States and the defendant, YUE XING LIN, enter into the following plea agreement:

1. The defendant agrees to plead guilty to an Information charging her with Unlawful Entry by an Alien, as a misdemeanor, in violation of Title 8, United States Code, § 1325(a)(1).

2(a) The defendant, YUE XING LIN, further agrees to fully and truthfully cooperate with Federal law enforcement agents concerning their investigation of alien smuggling and other related offenses. Cooperation shall include providing all information known to defendant regarding any criminal activity, including but not limited to the offense to which she is pleading guilty. Cooperation will also include complying with all reasonable instructions from the United States; submitting to interviews by investigators and attorneys at such reasonable times and

1 places to be determined by counsel for the United States; producing to the United States all non-2 privileged documents (including claimed personal documents) and other materials in the 3 possession, custody or control of defendant requested by attorneys and agents of the United 4 States; and testifying fully and truthfully before any grand juries, hearings, trials or any other 5 proceedings where defendant's testimony is deemed by the United States to be relevant.

6 Defendant understands that such cooperation shall be provided to any state, territorial, local or 7 federal law enforcement agencies designated by counsel for the United States. Further, it is 8 understood and agreed that defendant shall not directly, indirectly, or intentionally disclose
9 anything defendant knows or had done concerning the United States' investigation to anyone
10 other than defendant's attorney. Defendant agrees to take no steps directly or indirectly to warn 11 any subject of this investigation that defendant, a subject or anyone else is being investigated.

12 2(b) The United States will make this cooperation known to the Court prior to the 13 defendant's sentencing. The defendant further understands that she remains liable and subject to 14 prosecution for any criminal schemes of which she does not fully advise the United States, or for 15 any material omissions in this regard.

16 2(c) This agreement is not contingent in any way upon the outcome of any investigation, 17 proceeding or subsequent trial. Thus, none of the rights and obligations described above are in 18 any way dependent upon a grand jury returning an indictment, a jury's verdict at any trial, or the 19 success of any prosecution.

20 2(d) Except as otherwise herein provided, and in particular in Paragraph 11, the United 21 States agrees not to prosecute defendant for any other non-violent offenses which were 22 committed in the District of Guam or the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI) which defendant 23 reveals to Federal authorities during his cooperation with the United States. This agreement is 24 limited to crimes committed by defendant in the districts of Guam or the CNMI.

25 2(e) Following the sentencing of defendant, YUE XING LIN, on the Information, the 26 government will move to dismiss Count VI of the Indictment in Criminal Case No. 06-00023.

1 3. The defendant, YUE XING LIN, further agrees to submit to a polygraph examination
2 by any qualified Federal polygraph examiner. The defendant understands that such polygraph 3 examinations may include, but will not be limited to, her knowledge of or involvement in alien
4 smuggling and her knowledge of other person's involvement in such activities. Defendant 5 understands that the government will rely on the polygraph in assessing whether she has been 6 fully truthful.

7 4(a) The defendant, YUE XING LIN, understands that the maximum sentence for 8 Unlawful Entry by Alien in violation of Title 8, U.S.C. § 1325(a)(1) is a term of six (6) months 9 imprisonment, a $5,000 fine, and a $10 special assessment fee, which must be paid at the time of 10 sentencing. Any sentence imposed may include a term of not more than one (1) year supervised 11 release in addition to such terms of imprisonment. Defendant understands that if she violates a 12 condition of supervised release at any time prior to the expiration of such term, the court may 13 revoke the term of supervised release and sentence her up to no more than six (6) months of 14 incarceration pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e)(3).

15 4(b) If defendant cooperates as set forth in Paragraphs 2 and 3, the government will 16 recommend that defendant receive a sentence of probation, as the advisory Sentencing 17 Guidelines do not apply to Class B misdemeanors. See Section 1B1.9 of Sentencing Guidelines.

18 4(c) The government will recommend a fine within the statutory range. If defendant is 19 financially unable to immediately pay the fine in full, defendant agrees to make a full disclosure
20 of her financial status to the United States Attorney's Office by completing a Financial Disclosure 21 Form (OBD-500) for purpose of fixing a monthly payment schedule. Defendant understands 22 that, by law, interest accrues on any remaining balance of the debt.

23 5. The defendant understands that to establish a violation of Illegal Entry by an Alien as 24 charged pursuant to 8 U.S.C. § 1325(a)(1), the government must prove each of the following 25 elements beyond a reasonable doubt:

26 First: the defendant, who was then and there an alien, knowingly and unlawfully entered 27 the United States at a time and place other than as designated by immigration officials.
28

1 6. The Government and the defendant stipulate to the following facts for purposes of 2 sentencing:

3 (a) The defendant was born in 1976, and is a citizen of the People's Republic of China

4 (b) If the defendant cooperates with the United States by providing information
5 concerning the unlawful activities of others, the government agrees that any self-incriminating 6 information so provided will not be used against defendant in assessing her punishment, and 7 therefore, pursuant to § 1B1.3 of the Sentencing Guidelines, this information should not be used 8 in determining the applicable guidelines range.

9 (c) On July 17, 2006, defendant came by boat from Saipan to Guam. The defendant was 10 an alien at the time of entry. The defendant arrived at Urunao, Guam, a time and place not 11 designated by United States immigration officials as an official port of entry.

12 (d) The defendant understands that notwithstanding any agreement of the parties, the 13 United States Probation Office will make an independent sentencing recommendation to the 14 Court.

15 7. The defendant understands that this plea agreement depends on the fullness and 16 truthfulness of her cooperation. Therefore, defendant understands and agrees that if she should 17 fail to fulfill completely each and every one of her obligations under this plea agreement, or make 18 material omissions or intentional misstatements or engage in criminal conduct after the entry of 19 her plea agreement and before sentencing, the government will be free from its obligations under 20 the plea agreement. Thus defendant, in addition to standing guilty of the matters to which she 21 has pled pursuant to this agreement, shall also be fully subject to criminal prosecution for other 22 crimes, and for the counts which were to be dismissed. In any such prosecution, the prosecuting
23 authorities, whether Federal, State, or Local, shall be free to use against her, without limitation, 24 any and all information, in whatever form, that she has provided pursuant to this plea agreement 25 or otherwise; defendant shall not assert any claim under the United States Constitution, any 26 statute, Rule 11(f) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, Rule 410 of the Federal Rules of 27 Evidence, or any other provision of law, to attempt to bar such use of the information.

1 8. Defendant understands that whether she has completely fulfilled all of the obligations 2 under this agreement shall be determined by the court in an appropriate proceeding at which any 3 disclosures and documents provided by defendant shall be admissible and at which the United 4 States shall be required to establish any breach by a preponderance of the evidence. In 5 determining whether there has been a breach, the parties agree that any polygraph results and the 6 polygrapher's conclusions and opinions shall be admissible.

7 9. The defendant understands that her sentencing may be continued, at the sole discretion 8 of the United States, until after the indictment and trial of any associates involved. This will also 9 enable the Court to see the full degree of the defendant's cooperation. The defendant therefore 10 waives any right she may have to any speedy sentencing and hereby agrees to any continuance of 11 her sentencing date as it may become necessary.

12 10. In exchange for the government's concessions in this plea agreement, the defendant
13 waives any right to appeal or to collaterally attack this conviction but reserves the right to appeal
14 the sentence imposed in this case. The defendant understands and agrees that the government
15 has bargained for a criminal conviction arising from her criminal conduct. If at any time 16 defendant's guilty plea or conviction is rejected, withdrawn, vacated or reversed, for whatever 17 reason, or is rendered invalid for any reason, or if any change of law renders the conduct for 18 which she was convicted to be non-criminal, defendant agrees that she will enter a guilty plea to 19 another charge encompassing the same or similar conduct. In such event, defendant waives any 20 objections, motions or defenses based upon the Statute of Limitations, Speedy Trial Act, or 21 constitutional restrictions as to the time of bringing such charges.

22 11. The defendant acknowledges that she has been advised of her rights as set forth
23 below prior to entering into this plea agreement. Specifically, defendant has been fully advised 24 of, has had sufficient opportunity to reflect upon, and understands the following:

25 (a) The nature and elements of the charge and the mandatory minimum penalty provided 26 by law, if any, and the maximum possible penalty provided by law;

27 (b) Her right to be represented by an attorney;

1 (c) Her right to plead not guilty and the right to be tried by a jury and at that trial, the 2 right to be represented by counsel, the right to confront and cross-examine witnesses against her,
3 and the right not to be compelled to incriminate herself, that is, the right not to testify;

4 (d) That if she pleads guilty, there will not be a further trial of any kind on the charges to 5 which such plea is entered so that by entering into this plea agreement, she waives, that is, gives 6 up, the right to a trial;

7 (e) Because this plea is entered pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 8 11(c)(1)(B), the defendant understands that she may not withdraw her guilty plea even if the 9 court does not accept the sentencing recommendations of the government or her counsel;

10 (f) That, upon entry of a plea of guilty, or thereafter, the Court may ask her questions
11 about the offenses to which she has pled, under oath, and that if she answers these questions 12 under oath, on the record, her answers may later be used against her in prosecution for perjury or 13 false statement if an answer is untrue;

14 (g) That she agrees that the plea agreement is voluntary and not a result of any force, 15 threats or promises apart from this plea agreement;

16 (h) The defendant is satisfied with the representation of her lawyer and feels that her 17 lawyer has done everything possible for her defense.
